

The performance by Janet Jackson was one that MTV knew about in advance because the MTV web site promised before hand that her half time performance would be "shocking." Also Justin Timberlake sang in his rehearsed lyrics "you will be naked before this song is through." Therefore CBS and every local affiliate should be fined the maximum amount so they can in turn sue Miss Jackson and MTV so they will not make any money from this performance.